

January 13th: Bring Your Favorite Dish, Whatever It May Be!

Come with your favorite dish and a recipe card to share. While we are gathering, let's share our favorite stories about Farmshed.

February 10th: Chili Cook Off!

Meat, noodles, wild game, vegetarian, and vegan - the options are endless!

March 10th: Cultured or Cultural Foods

Share a dish containing fermented foods such as kombucha, pickles, tempeh, kimchi, tofu, or yogurt. Or, bring your favorite ethnic food, whether it's Italian, French, Polish, Scandinavian, or Balinese.

April 14th: Pancake Breakfast and Maple Syrup Harvest

Yes, Pancakes for dinner! Potato, buckwheat, sweet potato, cranberry! You name it, we'll enjoy it!

May 12th: Hunting and Gathering

Find your own foods, whether it's a hunt for more mushrooms or a fish from the brook!

June 9th: It's Vegan Night!

Don't be shy! It's easy, sub soy milk or vegan margarine to re-create your classic recipe, or go nuts and try something entirely new. It's a great opportunity to see how wonderful vegan cuisine can be.

July 14th: Let's get fruity!

Pick the local bounty of fruits and create a sweet or savory fruit dish. Bring your yard games and many rounds can be played.

August 11th: Garden Herbs and Spices

Let your herb garden set the theme this month.

September 8th: Noodles and Dumplings!

Italian, Chinese, Japanese, Polish, and Russian. Make your own or find a local source, add veggies, and then some spices! Pick your style and stay awhile!

October 13th: Harvest Celebration!

Celebrating the bounty of harvest with squash, garlic, potatoes, apples, cranberries and so much more. Invite a local farmer and let's celebrate the season together.

November 10th: Wisconsin Favorites!

Think venison, cheese curds, kraut, and cranberries, or whatever you grew up eating this time of the year. Bring a dish and a story to pass!

December 8th: Eggs and Bacon!

Collect some local eggs! Whether it's chicken, duck, quail, or your favorite egg substitute. Bacon on the side, or bacon in the eggs; sweet or savory options abound!
