

Would you like to see more local and regional foods in our schools, hospitals, day cares and colleges?

You are invited to the following talks with David Parr founder of Parrfection Produce

*Free Admission

Where:

Wood County Court House Auditorium
400 Market Place
Wisconsin Rapids, WI 54494

Local Foods to Institutions 2:30-3:30pm

Food Service personnel will learn about Parrfection Produce farmers, food safety protocol, product liability insurance, ordering, packaging and delivery of local foods. Monthly product price lists and a sampling of his processed local foods will be available.

Building a local foods business 4-5 pm

After only 4 years in the wholesale local food business, Parrfection Produce has all the component parts of a food hub covered: aggregation of produce from over 100 Wisconsin farmers, storage, fresh cut processing, and distribution of 3 million pounds of local produce in 2013 to customers in three states. Farmers, food system organizers and the general public are invited to attend.
