MEET OUR FARMERS

RED DOOR FAMILY FARM

Stacey and Tenzin Botsford own Red Door Family Farm, a CSA and market farm in Athens, WI. They started the farm 6 years ago and deliver mostly to Wausau, Marshfield, and Stevens Point areas. They are dedicated to working together to build a stronger local food system while preserving and improving ecological integrity.

CATTAIL ORGANICS

Originally from NYC, Kat came to Wisconsin for Graduate school, studying the politics of food and agriculture while working on farms. She has farmed in Athens, WI since 2006, always organically. She currently has 50 acres with 5 acres of vegetables, fruit, herbs, and flowers with additional land in perennial crops, wild spaces, a pond, stream and maple woods. She has a passion for on-farm research projects including plant breeding.

WHITEFEATHER ORGANICS

Operators Tony and Laura grew up in WI most of their lives, wanting to move back to the place they love and met to share their passion for organic farming. Growing for soil and community for 13 years, healthy food and environment are top on the list embodying sustainability in every way possible is a daily mantra.
